

OUR POLICY

Sistem Teknik ISO 9001 & ISO 14001 & ISO 45001 Integrated Management Systems Policy;

Innovation: Developing innovative and environmentally friendly technologies to protect our intellectual property rights

Effective Project Management: Ensuring high quality, minimum resource consumption, and timely delivery conditions on our products

Quality: Establishing long-term business partnerships by maximizing customer satisfaction through the high quality of our products and processes

Operational Safety: Complying with all legal and other requirements that we are subject, to regarding occupational health and safety by preventing occupational accidents, creating a safe working environment for our employees

Risk Management: Managing risks effectively to comply with our organizational goals and to ensure continuously improvement in all of our processes

Environment: Ensuring sustainability by preventing pollution at the source, using resources effectively and maintaining awareness of the employees at the highest level

Compliance with Standards and Legislation: Compliance of our processes and products with national and international standards, our integrated management system (ISO 9001, ISO 14001, ISO 45001), all legal legislation requirements and customer specifications

Employee Improvement: To improve the company's performance through developing the employees' competence

Employee Participation: Creating effective communication and feedback mechanisms where our employees can easily express themselves in order to keep team motivation and solidarity strong Information

Security: Ensuring the security of the information required for our company to continue to produce innovative and environmentally friendly technologies and to take information security as a basis in the communication we establish with our stakeholders

Relationship Management: Establishing transparent communications with all our stakeholders to protect mutual interests